Supervisor Ed Romaine greets World War II Army Air Force veteran Ed Loder from Port Jeffers on Station before the free screening of the movie "Lone Survivor."

Movie is based on the true story of Brookhaven war hero and Medal of Honor Recipient Lt. Michael Murphy

Farmingville, NY - On February 4, Supervisor Ed Romaine hosted a special free screening of the movie, "Lone Survivor," for Brookhaven Town veterans, including residents of the Long Island State Veterans Home in Stony Brook. The event was held at the AMC Stony Brook 17 movie theater.

"Lone Survivor" is based on a true story about four Navy SEALs whose mission in Afghanistan turns into a fierce firefight leaving only one survivor. Lieutenant Michael Murphy, a Brookhaven Town resident from Patchogue, was killed in the operation and was later awarded the Medal of Honor, the highest decoration in the U.S. military.
